

PRESENTS:

The BEAST Charity Run/Walk/Hike 2017

When: Saturday, February 4th, 2017 at 7:30 a.m. sharp!

Where: Whitney Canyon Park — The Beast is a dirt & gravel fire road that begins at the park-and-ride where Newhall Avenue (formerly San Fernando Road) dead-ends just east of Highway 14

Roundtrip Distance: 9.72 miles

Starting Elevation: 1,100 feet above sea level

Peak Elevation: 3,864 feet at the summit of Los Pinetos Peak

Edibles:

No Prizes: All proceeds will go to Jackie Solano’s Caring Bridge Fund. Jackie is an employee of Runners Lane who’s kicking breast cancer’s butt! She’s also a very spirited member of Team Runners Lane!

IMPORTANT COURSE INFO

The course is TOUGH. It is strongly recommended that you run/walk/hike with others and don’t do more than what is comfortable and healthy for your condition. In fact, you can stay home and pledge/pay based on someone else’s efforts. We’d like to see you, but we’d like to see your check just as much.

ENTRY FEE:

$25 payable to RUNNERS LANE. While race-day registration is OK, we prefer to receive your funds at least 72 hours prior to the event to guarantee you receive your preferred size “Beast Mode Purple All Cancers” unisex 100% cotton commemorative T-shirt. Come out and join the fun, or pledge at home from the comfort of your plush easy chair and still receive the much-sought-after Beast T-shirt — your local community will benefit either way!
